- Charities 1. The United Charities
2. The Robert Day Charity

In response to your letter of 22nd October, 1993, your humble servant has not been entirely idle but he has to admit he has been very remiss on the charities front and offers sincere apologies for his shortcomings.

Only today has he posted the two notices enclosed with your letter. They will be taken down in three weeks' time and returned to you with one copy of the completed draft scheme.
